

GERMANS LAUNCH ATTACKS

(By United Press Cablegram.)

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A German drive against infantry hill east of Monchy Le Preux was successful in part last night. Field Marshal Haig reported that the enemy temporarily held portions of the British front line.

"Early at night the enemy renewed his attempt to drive us from infantry hill," the statement said, "on a half mile front he succeeded temporarily in possessing himself of portions of our front line at two points our counter attack regained part of the lost ground."

Fighting as much against an inching sea of mud as against the enemy, British troops were still consolidating their gains as the local attacks

The weather was slightly improved but masked infantry action were practically out of the question. The artillery therefore was employed to continue mauling the German line.

Early today further counter attacks by German picked forces were thrown back at several points along the line where high ground permitted some freedom from the mud.

With last night's attacks in the Ypres Bouleaux sector the Germans have launched at least five assaults in attempt to recapture that ground.

GERMANS ACCUSED OF TREASON

LOWDEN, IA., Aug. 3.—The pro-Germanism of the Rev. John Reichert, pastor of the German Evangelical church of this town, primarily was the cause of a drive made by the federal government against local residents who have taken their views from the German press as gospel truth and who believed all that was printed in the American newspapers here "lies."

Four German-Americans, each of whom is accredited wealthy, were taken to Cedar Rapids yesterday afternoon by United States marshals and bound over to the federal grand jury on charges of treason because they listened to the minister.

Four Men Under Arrest.
The men under arrest are:
ALBERT SCHAEFFER, 65, retired farmer.
WILLIAM REICHMAN, 66, furniture dealer.

KARL GERH, farmer.
ERNEST HIEBER, 65, retired farmer.

The collective bonds of the defendants were placed at $20,000 which they furnished and were released.

United States Marshal Moore arrived here from Cedar Rapids after he had been informed that this town of 700 population was a hot-bed of sedition. Reichman has a son enlisted in the army and he is reported to have said that he would rather see his boy dead than bearing arms against Germany. The charges against the other men have not been made public in detail.

Trouble Started on Fourth.
The trouble began early in July and it was said to have been accentuated by the dragging of a German flag behind an automobile in the Fourth of July parade. Feeling between the loyal and pro-German elements has increased since then, fanned by public and private utterances.

Minister Held Responsible.
It is admitted that the Rev. Mr. Reichert had been responsible for the feeling against the government and the American newspapers. It is known the minister had preached from the pulpit that the American press could not be relied on, and that only the German press told the truth.

CHIEF HIT BY STREET CAR

Peter Dilschneider, chief of the Hammond fire department, was struck by a street car this afternoon at Hohman and Clinton streets when he was flagging the street crossing for the fire engines. The department had just made a run to the corner of Hohman and Clinton streets and was returning.

U. S. ARRESTS WELL KNOWN GARY MAN

David Haas Is Locked Up At Gary Jail, Held For Secret Service.

Considerable surprise was caused in Gary by the arrest of David Haas, 60 years old, a dealer in talking machines, who was taken into custody at his hotel by Detective Sergeant Linn upon orders from the department of justice.

The nature of the charges against Haas has not been disclosed. It is said that his arrest was caused at the instance of Chief G. H. Bragdon of the Gary branch of the secret service.

Haas' arrest follows that of Max Meerson, a business man, who was locked up in city jail several days for government detention.

Paul Shoemaker, an alleged I. W. W. agent, was arrested by Chief Bragdon upon complaint of the captain of the ore steamer J. P. Morgan. It is said that Shoemaker tried to cause dissension among the crew.

Chief Bragdon has also arrested several slackers.

COUNCIL THANKS THE NEWSPAPERS

P. A. Perry, Editor Times:—

We want to thank you for the splendid cooperation which is being given by the press of Indiana to the work of the State and National Councils of Defense. The men in charge of the publicity work advise me that, with possibly two exceptions only in the state, all of the newspapers, numbering approximately 600, are aiding splendidly.

We believed from the beginning that this work was important, and realized there would be much of it, but it is developing into most serious proportions and consequences. The council is using its very best efforts literally and absolutely to carry out in the fullest detail every suggestion, touching the war made by the president, the governor, the war department and the National Council of Defense, and this can not be done without the cooperation of the press. Federal government wants Indiana, with the other states, organized as to men and materials on a war basis, and this is going to be done, and it is natural, of course, that those who are charged with these responsibilities in the matter should do feel the keenest appreciation of the cooperation and help given by the press. We have written the government at Washington how fully the press of Indiana has responded, and the appreciation there will be just as it is here, and we most earnestly urge you to continue to give to the situation the consideration which you have been exercising and giving full support. We realize that the newspapers have the ordinary business of their institution, which the public demands proceed as usual, and it is splendid service when you publish, as you are publishing whenever possible, not only matter aiding the war work immediately in hand, but general patriotic appeals which tend to create in the public that sound, patriotic sentiment and

In the role of a daring "flame" Miss Dalton plays her best and critics commend the picture as one of the most interesting telling the story of far away Alaska.

ANOTHER WAY TO WIN THE WAR

TIMES BUREAU AT STATE CAPITAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 4.—A bulletin has just been issued by the Indiana university, appealing to the young men and women of the state to assist the government to win the war by equipping themselves in institutions of higher learning. The bulletin says that the war will be won by trained men and women and that there never was a time when the high school graduate could serve his country so patriotically as at the present—by going to college to receive the training along many lines of endeavor that later will give his country the benefit of specialized knowledge.

"It is imperative," the bulletin points out, "that the ranks of college men and women should be kept filled. This war is a scientific war and there is and will continue to be a great demand for the services of men scientifically trained. Experts skilled in physics and chemistry, in mathematics and astronomy, in engineering and aeronautics, and in all branches of science are able to contribute much more than their number to the nation. The call is in a large measure a call for college and university trained men."

"One of the best things which students, who are not called into some branch of military or industrial service, can do is to continue to attend their college or university in order to receive the training that the nation requires. It is equally important that young men just graduated from high school give serious thought to the necessity of making the best possible use of the years until they are of military age in the preparation for such service as they may be called upon to render, whether in peace or war."

"And the need for such training is not confined to war time. Equally important will be the service of men of liberal education and broad-minded leadership during the trying days of reconstruction in this and other countries after the war. In the halls of legislation, in the court room, in the pulpit, in the classroom, on the farm, in mercantile establishments, in all forms of productive industry and in all branches of expert service the demand will be greater than the supply. The war will in no wise lessen, but increase the demand for trained leaders in all these lines."

Governor Goodrich has sent a letter on the subject to Horace Ellis, state superintendent of public instruction, urging that all schools and colleges be kept open and that the public mind be trained to realize that education must be the center of more herculean efforts than ever. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana, has sent a letter to the heads of all higher learning institutions, urging that they join hands in this great work to stimulate registration in Indiana colleges and universities next fall.

BEAUTIFUL YACHT DOCKS AT CANAL

Albert Pack of the Hubbard Steel Co. tied up at East Chicago canal docks a few days ago in his magnificent yacht which he has had for the last few weeks.

The boat will accommodate at least ten passengers besides a crew of six men. It is about 75 feet long with a twelve foot beam and is equipped with an engine that will drive it easily at a speed of twenty miles an hour. The interior finish is mahogany throughout. It cost between forty and fifty thousand dollars.

Mr. Pack recently had the original engines taken out and a smaller set put in. Originally he got 25.3 miles an hour, but the engine was not satisfactory and he made a change. His entrance into the canal a few days ago was on a test trip which he was giving to the new power.

With a company of friends he is now making a cruise "somewhere on Lake Michigan."
